And whereas His Majeſty hath received certain Advices, that the Plague for a conſiderable Time hath entirely ceaſed in France, and that a Communication hath been opened between all Parts of that Kingdom, and Commerce carried on in the ſame Manner as before the Plague broke out there, and the Quarantain hath been taken off by the neighbouring Countries without any Inconveniencies attending the ſame, His Majeſty being always deſirous to encourage and promote the Trade of His Subjects, and to remove all Obſtructions thereto, when conſiſtent with the Safety of His People, hath thought

For a Publick Thankſgiving.

GEORGE R.

WHereas it hath pleaſed Almighty God, out of His infinite Mercy to preſerve Us and Our Subjects from that dreadful Plague, with which the Kingdom of France was lately viſited, and to put an End to the ſame: We therefore adoring the Divine Goodneſs, and duly conſidering, that ſuch Great and Publick Bleſſings do call for Publick and Solemn Acknowledgements, have thought fit, by the Advice of Our Privy Council, to iſſue this Our Royal Proclamation, hereby appointing and commanding, That a General Thankſgiving to Almighty God for theſe His Mercies, be obſerved throughout that Part of Our Kingdom of Great Britain, called England, Our Dominion of Wales, and the Town of Berwick upon Tweed on Thurſday the Twenty fifth Day of April next. And We do ſtrictly Charge and Command, That the ſaid Publick Day of Thankſgiving be religiouſly obſerved by all Our loving Subjects, as they tender the Favour of Almighty God, and upon Pain of ſuffering ſuch Puniſhment, as We can juſtly inflict upon all ſuch, who ſhall Contemn or Neglect the ſame.
